

Professionals and the KWF – we need each other!

You want to join us? Great!

Since our association is committed to the common good, basically anyone willing can become a member of the German Center for Forest Work and Technology (KWF).

We are committed to ensure the usage of wood as a valuable resource under aspects of occupational safety and sustainability.

As our member, you can benefit in several ways:

- ✓ Quick and easy access to the knowledge of the KWF and its expert and working committees
- ✓ As a member representative you can have an effect upon the alignment of the KWF
- ✓ Free admission to various KWF events
