

Membership application

Professionals need the KWF.

The KWF needs you!

Anyone can and should become a member of the KWF. Since, our resource is committed to the common good. We are committed to ensuring that the valuable raw material wood continues to be with particular attention to occupational safety and sustainability. The more members our association has, the better we can represent our interests we can push through our concerns.

As our member, you benefit in several ways:

- ✓ Quick and easy access to the knowledge of the KWF and its working and technical committees
- ✓ Possibility of influencing the direction of the KWF via member representation
- ✓ 6 times a year member magazine "FTI - Forsttechnische Informationen" digital or printed
- ✓ Free or reduced entry to selected KWF events
